PERSONAL.—Officer Knight is acting as sergeant of the police force during the absence from duty of Sergeant Goods.

Mrs. Frank Church, who has recently been quite ill, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Rodgers last night celebrated the twenty-fifth anniversary of their marriage by a silver wedding at their residence, 222 south Fairfax street. A large gathering of friends were present and a most enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dempsey have returned from a pleasant visit to friends in Fauquier county.

Mrs. J. H. Reid is visiting her father, Capt. E. F. Knox.

Mrs. Mary M. Thornton and Mr. John Metcalfe were quietly married at the latter's home on last Thursday by Rev. H. J. Carter.

Miss Elizabeth Worthington, who has been the guest of Miss Annie Fleming, in Fredericksburg, has returned to her home on Seminary Hill.

Miss Mildred Lee, daughter, and Mr. R. E. Lee, Jr., grandson of Gen. Robert E. Lee, arrived in Warsaw on Monday last and are visiting at the home of the Hon. W. A. Jones.

[Northern Neck News.]

Mrs. J. E. Willard, of Fairfax, who has been visiting Mrs. Judge Robertson, of Charlottesville, returned today to her home.

The Rev. Dr. Brooke, of Alexandria, preached a capital sermon in the First Presbyterian Church Thursday night.

His subject was "The Duty of Forgiving Others." Every man and woman in Roanoke should have heard it. Dr. Brooke comes from a family of lawyers.

He is the nephew of Hon. John Randolph Tucker and is a cousin of Col. S. S. Brooke, of this city. Dr. Brooke also studied law himself and has much of the style of the lawyer in preaching the truth.

[Roanoke World.]

Rev. J. R. Graham, of Winchester, will preach in the Second Presbyterian Church tomorrow morning and night.

He is one of the most prominent preachers in the Synod of Virginia.

Mrs. Frederick Vennings, wife of one of the royal commissioners of India, is now visiting her sister, Mrs. J. W. Burson, in this city.

Mrs. Vennings was the wife of the late Sir Frederick Vennings, who died on November 28 for Nice, France, to join her husband, Judge Vennings.

Messrs. W. A. Cox and Hollis R. Cooke, of Wilmington, Del., who have been visiting friends and relatives of Dr. Cooke for several days past returned home this morning. These gentlemen came to this city the first day of the week from Wilmington on their bicycles, reaching this city in fourteen hours.

THE END OF JACKSON CITY.—As a result of the purchase of the ground on which there are a number of old buildings in Jackson City, these reports will be obliterated.

The purchase has been made by the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, as they will need that ground when the proposed new Long Bridge is built.

When it was learned that the railroad company wanted the property those who owned property at that place at once raised the price. James Wells, who owned the small frame building on the west side of the road known as "Joe's saloon," secured for that place the sum of $8,000. Many of those who have been operating places there are making active preparations to vacate, and before the expiration of the sixty days that place will be a thing of the past. Since the closing of the race tracks in Alexandria county the business of the place has greatly diminished, and there have been no big games as in former years.

PETITION FOR DIVORCE.—In a petition for divorce filed in Washington yesterday by Ophelia Schiller, she alleges that her husband, Lawrence S. Schiller, deliberately and willfully deceived her and defrauded her in marriage, and that he never intended to live with the complainant as his lawful wife. The parties were married in this city on August 5 last. Mrs. Schiller declares her husband became peevish and ill-natured toward her, and told her, she asserts, that he was sorry he married her. She further says that he asserted he preferred to be single, and avoided and repelled her from him, suddenly pushing her away when she would approach to speak to or to caress him. She states also that he would abuse her in vile language and sometimes struck her.

DEATHS.—Mrs. Ellen Murphy, wife of Mr. John Murphy, died at her home, No. 700 Franklin street, at an early hour this morning aged 62 years. The deceased had been critically ill recently from typhoid pneumonia. She leaves a husband and three grown sons.

Mr. Geo. W. Lyles, who lived near Ravensworth, Fairfax county, died at his home yesterday. He had been suffering from typhoid fever. He leaves a widow and five grown children, all of whom are convalescing from the same disease to which Mr. Lyles succumbed. The deceased was 57 years old. He had for many years attended the market house in this city and was known to many Alexandrians.

MINISTERIAL.—Rev. C. E. Ball, who has been on a six weeks vacation, is now in traveling through the north and west, has returned to his home in this city and will enter upon his church duties tomorrow.

Rev. Dr. George L. Hunt, pastor of the First Baptist Church, this city, is in attendance at the Baptist General Association of Virginia which is in session in Richmond. Owing to the convention extending over Sunday the Rev. Carroll Stetley, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will supply for a visit to Washington, will supply for Dr. Hunt tomorrow at both the morning and evening services.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—Mechanics Lodge, No. 3, and Oriental Lodge, No. 6, Knights of Pythias, have appointed joint committees to devise ways and means for the organization of a Pythian relief board. The committees will report to their respective lodges next week. There is also a movement in the two lodges to make arrangements for a social dance to be given in Richmond next February, when the Grand Lodge will meet in this city.

SCHWARTZ'S carpet department is doing a big business this year, nearly double to what it was last year. They are now in the process of choosing the stock, being as particular in getting good patterns in the medium priced goods as on the expensive ones. Qualities were also looked after with a sharp eye and they feel sure that they have no unreliable stock in the place. You certainly will make a mistake if you buy your covers without first consulting their stock and prices.

YESTERDAY'S RAILROAD ACCIDENTS.

The account of the collision on the Manassas Branch of the Southern Railway early yesterday morning and the killing of Conductor McDonald and brakeman Driver and the injury of the passenger Stover was published in yesterday's Gazette. The additional details throw no new light on the unfortunate occurrence. The freight train had stalled near Wellington, but was again in motion and proceeding slowly when an engine pushing a caboose and following crashed into it. Had the engine been in front the accident would doubtless have been avoided, as the freight train was in the rear.

The railroad officials had the crews of both trains before them this morning and made a thorough examination of the cause of the accident.

The late Mr. John Corbin, who was killed by a Southern Railway passenger train at Manassas yesterday, was a brother of Mrs. Randolph Spittle, of this city. The deceased was not killed outright, as was at first reported but lingered from one o'clock in the afternoon, when struck, until about seven o'clock last night. The engineer of the train which he saw Mr. Corbin's team on the tracks did all he could to stop the train and prevent the accident.

FOUND A SKELETON.—While several gentlemen from this city were on a hunting trip in Fairfax county, near Fort Hunt, yesterday, they discovered a skeleton in a clump of bushes. The flesh was entirely gone, nothing but the dry bones remaining. A blue army coat was near the skeleton, which fact makes it probable the deceased was a soldier. The affair is wrapped in mystery. Some believe the soldier was taken sick and died where found; others suggest he may have been murdered. The authorities had evidently been preying upon the carcass.

PROPERTY SALES.—Mr. S. H. Lunt sold at auction today a lot of ground with improvements thereon situated on the west side of Royal street between Wolfe and Wilkes to Mr. Hugh L. Strider for $215, also the real estate situated on the northeast corner of Fairfax and Prince street (Burns property) to Wm. H. May for the Mercantile Railway Building and Lumber Association for $2500. Two weeks ago this last named property sold for $1400.

FINAL SEPULTURE.—The remains of Mrs. Patrick K. Smith, who died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Moss, July 2, 1898; her husband, Mrs. C. Smith, who died in this city October, 1883, and their sons—Wm. C. who died November 1881; Hugh R. who died August, 1884, and Henry T. who died in 1888—were brought here today from Haymarket and will be interred in St. Paul's cemetery tomorrow morning.

ACCIDENT TO A STEAMER.—The steamer Newport News of the Norfolk line arrived at this port this morning on schedule time. Just as the lines had been cast off and she was about to proceed to Washington a patch blew off one of her cylinders and rendered her engines useless. The steamer lay here about an hour when two tugboats arrived from Washington and towed her to that city. No one was injured by the explosion.

GERMAN.—The Alexandria German Club gave their first dance of the season last night in McBurney's Hall. Mr. Taylor Burke, with Miss Ruth Bryant, led the German. A number of young people from this city and elsewhere were present, including several from the University of Virginia. The dance was a most enjoyable one.

FIVE COACHES AND BOATS.—Messrs. L. Elchberg & Son are doing a larger business by far this year than last and last year was the biggest up to them. They have a large and fine assortment of furs which they are selling at most reasonable prices.

Dr. Bull's Celebrated Pills cures many ills. One pill a dose. Box, 50 pills, 10 cts. Cure Constipation, Liver Troubles, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, Female Complaints, Stomach and Bowel Disorders. Dr. Bull's Pills never gripe. Sold by Richard Gibson and all druggists.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in Chicago.

Higgen Bros., the popular South Side druggists, corner 69th street and Westmore avenue, say: "We sell a great deal of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and find that it gives the most satisfactory results, especially among children, for severe colds and croup." For sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

The weather today has been cool and clear.

Nine lodgers were accommodated at the station house last night.

There were no cases for trial in the Police Court this morning.

An old offender was locked up to the station house last night for being drunk on the street.

Numbers of people from this city went today to see the football game between the University of Virginia and the Georgetown College teams.

Mr. McNeely, the new manager of the Virginia Rod and Gun Club, at Four Mile Run, will tomorrow entertain the members of the club and their friends at an oyster roast.

The Athletic Club of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum has been organized for the coming season, with the election of the following officers: John A. Nugent, president, and F. T. Quinn, secretary and treasurer.

Edward Herzog, the victim of cruelty to an oyster dredge, is sinking at the Emergency Hospital, Washington. There are but slight chances of recovery. Herzog has developed an aggravated case of pneumonia. The frightful burns on the right arm have also resulted in a sloughing that is believed to be the forerunner of blood poisoning.

Colonel Miller, the engineer officer in charge of the Washington squad, under orders from the War department, is engaged in the construction of a military plant on the military reservation at Fort Myer. The inability to obtain an adequate supply of drinking water at Fort Myer has been a subject of anxiety to the officers and soldiers stationed at that post for many years past.

The examination of Raymond Newell, against whom complaint was made at the instance of Mr. Ellis, for an attempt of criminal assault at Falls Church took place before Mayor Edlyson on Thursday. Previous to the examination the warrant was charged so as to make the offense simply an assault, and upon this he was convicted, and a fine of $5 was imposed. The fine was paid and he was discharged from custody.

The market this morning was but moderately supplied with country produce. Prices were about unchanged. Dressed turkeys
